

- 10 TOP REASONS TO JOIN THE CHAMBER -

- Preferential rates for services and activities

IACCW Members benefit from preferential rates for services and activities

- Referral Services

The Chamber receives many enquiries requesting referrals for information on legal, accounting, banking, travel, real estate, business opportunities and other services. The IACCW answers all those enquiries by referring its members in the appropriate sector.

- Business Exposure

The IACCW provides opportunities to promote your company to potential customers and business professionals:

- Permanent logo in our website;
- Possibility to be featured on e'Italia the Magazine of the Italian Chambers of Commerce in the World;
- Opportunity to publish business related information on the website under "Follow our Members";
- Listing on the IACCW online membership directory;
- Possibility to be included in our quarterly newsletter to advertise and promote your company;
- Advertise business events through the IACCW list of business contacts.

- Membership Directory

Once a year, the IACCW publishes online Members Directory containing members' business information and opportunity for discounted rates on services. The directory is published once a year and is updated monthly.

- My Membership Card

As a member of the Chamber you receive a membership card that allows you to access a wide range of services at hotels, restaurants, car rentals, etc. at special prices in USA and in other 49 countries where Chambers are present. IACCW members are encouraged to offer privileged pricing, exclusive discounts and other value-added benefits to their local and international fellow members with the goal of fostering business relationships among worldwide members.

- Internship Service

In collaboration with the Italian Universities, the IACCW offers its Members the opportunity to host Italian students as interns in their company. The internship programs are at no cost for the companies. If interested, please email us at info@iaccw.net for more information.

- Networking events

The IACCW provides great opportunities to get to know new people and expand your business network. Business Mixers, Wine tastings, seminars on economy related topics, are just a few examples of events that the Chamber organizes to help our members build new business relationships and generate new business opportunities. Thanks to the generosity of our sponsors, we are able to organize discounted events for our members. In addition to the general networking events, the IACCW hosts industry-only events open to professionals and members of the related industry.

- IACCW Annual Events

Discounted rates and priority invitation to IACCW annual events:

Annual General Meeting (January)

Membership Orientation (February)

Viva Vino LA (May)

LA Mixer and Networking (September)

IACCW Gala Dinner (December)

International Golf Tournament (starting March 2012)

- Trade Missions

The IACCW organizes trade missions to and from Italy in various industry sectors. Members of the Chamber have priority to participate in trade missions.

- Business Centre

The IACCW offers the opportunity to rent an office space and/or a Conference room. Members receive special rates. For more information, please email us at info@iaccw.net or call (310) 557-3017